From Thursday December 8. to Saturday December 10. 1709.

Whitehall, December 7.

BY Order of the Right Honourable the Lords, and others, the Commissioners, &c. for the Poor Palatines, Notice is hereby given, That all Ministers, Church-wardens, and others, who have any Mony in their Hands, collected on any Brief for Relief of the said Palatines, and have not an Opportunity to return such Brief with the Mony thereon collected, to the Collector who left the Brief with them, may return such Brief, with the Mony collected thereon, to Henry Walker, Gent. who gives daily Attendance at Mr. Ward's, a Bookseller, in the Inner Temple Lane, and is impowered by the said Commissioners to receive and give Discharges for the same.

And for the Information and Convenience of all such as are willing to contribute their Charity to the Relief of the said Palatines, and had not an Opportunity of doing it, by reason of their being out of Town in the Summer-Season, when the Collections on the Brief were made in the Cities of London and Westminster, and Bills of Mortality; Notice is hereby likewise given, That all such Persons may send such their Charitable Contributions to the Chamber of London, where the same will be received, and entered in a Book kept there for that purpose.

St. James's, December 8. The following Address of the Mayor, Sheriffs, Citizens and Commonalty of the City of Norwich, in Common-Council assembled; was presented to her Majesty by Waller Bacon and John Chambers, Esqrs; their Representatives in Parliament, introduced by the Right Honourable Sir John Holland, Bart. Comptroller of Her Majesty's Houshold.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Sheriffs, Citizens and Commonalty of the City of Norwich, in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

YOur Majesty, by the whole Course of your Actions, ever since your happy Accession to the Throne, has made it evidently appear that you have nothing so much at your Heart as the Glory of God, the Happiness of your People, and the Welfare of Europe; the wise Measures you have all along taken for attaining these glorious Ends, have furnished your happy Subjects with continual matter of Joy and Admiration; the fresh Occasion of their Exultation is the Glory of your Arms, and those of your Allies, in taking the important Fortresses of Tournay and Mons, and the signal Victory obtained over the French in the Battel of Taniers, by the surprizing Gallantry and Conduct of the Duke of Marlborough and the Prince of Savoy, notwithstanding the many Advantages on the Enemies side; we beg leave to Congratulate your Majesty on these repeated Triumphs over your Enemies, and do implore the Divine Goodness to give continual Success to your great Designs for the Publick Good. There is nothing that has a Tendency to make human Life comfortable, which we may not hope for from your Prudent and Tender Care of us; and being deeply sensible of the Happiness we enjoy under your Administration, we do humbly assure your Majesty of our Inviolable Obedience to your Government, and of the great Veneration we shall always have for your Sacred Person. Long may your Majesty live with Glory and Happiness to your self, an inestimable Blessing to a free, but obedient and thankful People. This, and all possible Good to your Majesty, is, and ever will be the sincere and hearty Wish of, Madam, your Majesty's most faithful and dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Sheriffs, Citizens and Commonalty of your City of Norwich. Given under our Common Seal the 17th Day of November, in the Year of our Lord 1709.

The humble Address of the Bailiff, Burghers and Inhabitants of the Ancient and Loyal Borough of Cockermouth in the County of Cumberland; was presented to Her Majesty by his Grace the Duke of Somerset.

The humble Address of the Lord-Lieutenant, Custos Rotulorum, Deputy-Lieutenants, and Justices of the Peace of the County of Flint, and other Gentlemen of the said County; was presented to Her Majesty by the Rt. Hon. the Earl of Cholmondeley, Lord Lieutenant of North-Wales.

Which Addresses Her Majesty received very graciously.

Turin, November 20. N. S. Some Days ago Major-General Palmes, Envoy-Extraordinary from her Majesty of Great Britain to this Court, delivered a Letter to the Duke of Savoy from the Duke of Marlborough, wherein his Grace congratulated his Royal Highness on the taking of Mons, and the happy Conclusion of the Campaign in Flanders. His Royal Highness returned to this City from the Venerie, in order to assist at the Te Deum which Falmouth, December 3. Yeſterday put in here the St. Antony of Genoa from Cadiz, with Wine and Fruit for Amſterdam. The Mercury Packet-boat continues in our Harbour, by reaſon of Southerly Winds. The Genoeſe brings an Account, that the New-Invention, a Privateer of forty four Guns, is taken by an Engliſh Man of War.

Plimouth, December 4. This Day arrived the Friendſhip of this Place from Lisbon, with Fruit for London; and the Hope of Amſterdam for Rochel.

Hull, December 5. Laſt Saturday in the Afternoon arrived our Trade from Rotterdam, conſiſting of eight or ten Sail, under Convoy of the Salisbury Prize, which is now in the Humber.

Yarmouth, December 5. Her Majeſty's Ship the Dunwich came lately into our Road from the Southward, and is now here with the Falkſtone and Advice's-Prize.

Portſmouth, December 5. On Sunday laſt her Majeſty's Ship the Nonſuch ſailed to the Weſtward, and the Oxford ſailed into the Harbour. Sir John Norris with her Majeſty's Squadron continues ſtill at Spithead. We have had very ſtormy Weather for ſome Days, which ſtill continues.

Deale, December 6. Here are her Majeſty's Ships the Ruſſel, Dragon, Loe, Strombulo and Swan; and alſo three outward-bound and five Store-ſhips.

There are two Mails due from Holland.

The Commiſſioners for Victualling her Majeſty's Navy give Notice, That on Wedneſday the 21ſt of this Inſtant, in the Forenoon, they will be ready at their Office on Towerhill to receive Propoſals, and treat with ſuch Perſons as are inclinable to furniſh Oxen for the Service of her Majeſty's Navy at the Ports of Portſmouth, Plimouth, Dover and Harwich.
